Doctoral Student Presentation Travel Fund Application

The School of Public Affairs and Administration strongly encourages doctoral students to present solo-authored or co-authored papers at scholarly conferences. Accordingly, SPAA will make up to $650 available to doctoral students for out-of-state travel for these purposes. To apply for funding, complete this form and submit it, along with a one-page abstract of the presentation and proof of acceptance, to:

Holly Goerdel, Doctoral Program Coordinator

hgoerdel@ku.edu

Please note:

1. This form requires the signature of your advisor or a faculty member who is familiar with your research and the conference you plan to attend.
2. Applications will be processed on a routine basis (first-come, first-served) until funds are exhausted.
3. The purpose must be to present research at a national or regional scholarly meeting held out-of-state.
4. Doctoral students must be currently enrolled to apply.
5. There is a limit of one award per applicant per year.
